

“Are you sick and tired of working for bean counters?”

I may not be an accountant, but I believe I'm the perfect person to run a firm full of them. I've worked to give FAL a culture that's welcoming, nurturing and most importantly, fun. Join us and not only will you have an opportunity to work with a number of prestigious clients, you'll find a balance between life and work that's both professionally fulfilling and personally rewarding.
